MR. CARLIN IN RICHMOND.

Representative C. O. Carlin, of the Eighth district, is in town, looking, it is believed, after his political fences. When asked if he had anything to say about the rumor that he would have opposition at the next congressional election, Mr. Carlin turned to Governor-elect Mann, who was sitting near him, and said:

"Governor, I want to tell you a story. When Captain Clark, commanding the battleship Oregon, made his historic run from the Pacific ocean round Cape Horn and arrived in Oahu in time to engage the enemy at Santiago, he received cablegrams from the Navy Department at every port at which he touched, saying, 'Watch out for the Spanish fleet. What will you do if you meet the Spanish fleet?'"

"Finally he got tired of questions and so he sent this cablegram to the secretary of the navy: 'Please do not worry me with further questions. If the Spanish fleet worries me, I will sink the damned old thing.'"

When Mr. Carlin was asked the name of the 'Spanish fleet,' he said he did not think that the enemy had yet put a ship in commission. — [Times Dispatch.

"I am not losing very much sleep over the reports that I will have opposition for the congressional nomination," said Congressman Charles O. Carlin, who is here today. "As a matter of fact, it would be unusual if I did not have opposition. I expect it, and when the time comes I shall get into the fight and do my level best to retain my seat. 'I have seen some reference to a conference held here, and I have also seen that some of the gentlemen mentioned have denied that they were here in any conference.' — [Journal.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

A meeting of Fitzgerald Council, No. 459, Knights of Columbus, was held at St. Mary's Hall, on south Royal street, last evening. The officers recently elected were installed by District Deputy J. S. Patterson, of Richmond, assisted by State Warden James Phillips, also of Richmond.

It was announced at the meeting that another of the series of lectures under the auspices of Fitzgerald Council would be given at the Lyceum Hall on the evening of February 8th. This lecture will be delivered by Congressman T. T. Ambery, of Ohio, who will take for his subject "Life of Christ from the viewpoint of a lawyer."

Following the meeting the members repaired to the Hotel Rammel, where a banquet was served, during which speeches were made by District Deputy Patterson, James Phillips, Dr. E. A. Gorman, James Roche, John Rice, James Callan, M. J. McFarland, and others. During the evening solos were rendered by William Toomey and Dr. E. A. Gorman.

The following were the officers installed: E. A. Gorman, grand knight; Robert E. Pizer, deputy grand knight; M. J. McFarland, chancellor; Francis J. Quinn, recorder; James Callan, financial secretary; A. A. Lucas, warden; Thomas Fegan, lecturer; James Roche, assistant lecturer; R. N. Roland, inside guard; F. M. Martin, outside guard; Rev. L. F. Kelley, chaplain; P. N. Schoeni, S. D. Devaughn and O. T. Helmutz, trustees.

THE CASE OF HENRY SMITH.

Henry Smith, who is to be electrocuted on the 18th proximo for participating in the murder of Walter F. Schulz, is still in the jail at Fairfax Courthouse. According to the law, it will be necessary for a guard to take him to the Richmond penitentiary by February 3.

Mr. N. S. Greenaway, clerk of the Corporation Court of this city, who recently notified Mr. J. B. Wood, superintendent of the penitentiary, of the sentence of death imposed upon Henry Smith, colored, for participation in the murder of Walter F. Schulz, has received the following reply:

Mr. Nevill S. Greenaway, Clerk Corporation Court, Alexandria, Va.
Dear Sir: Yours of the 25th in reference to Commonwealth against Henry Smith, the copy of judgment sent by you, was duly received, and I will send to Fairfax for Smith within the next day or two. You are very truly,
J. B. Wood, Superintendent.

MUSICAL TEA.

The musical tea in Lee Camp Hall yesterday afternoon was one of the most successful ever given by the Guild of the Chapel of the Good Shepherd. The program was well rendered and greatly enjoyed by all present. Among those who took part in vocal solos were Mesdames Pickett, DeDier and Fowler, Misses F. B. Buntley and Anderson and Mr. Perle. Piano selections by Mesdames O. Reister and Dawes, Misses Walter and Ashton and duet by the Misses Henshly. The recitations by Miss Pollard and Mr. Martin were unusually fine. All who were present are indebted to the Guild for the most delightful evening, and hope the tea will be repeated.

PETRIFIED DOG.

John O'Neal, engineer on the Southern Railway, while hunting in a dense forest a few miles south of Manassas yesterday, found a petrified dog in the forks of a tree, near the ground. The supposition is that the dog in springing for prey was caught and turned to stone. O'Neal took the dog to Washington, where it will be placed on exhibition. Many others have been made for the strange animal, but thus far the price has been refused. The perfect condition of the dog makes it especially valuable.

Mr. Ralph Johnson, son of Mr. T. F. Johnson, who resides on Pitt street, between King and Cameron, while roller skating on the postoffice sidewalk yesterday evening fell and broke his arm. He was attended by Dr. Jones.

The Ladies Shoe for Ladies shoe wear has no equal, John A. Marshall & Co., 422 King street.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BANQUET.

Senators Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas, and H. D. Money, of Mississippi; Representative C. O. Carlin of the Eighth district of Virginia, and Mr. W. T. Dabney, business manager of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, will be the orators tonight at the banquet of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, which will be held in the Alexandria Light Infantry Armory. There will be no set treat, President White, of the Washington-Southern Railway Company, who had been invited to deliver an address will not be able to attend. Covers for 300 will be laid and every preparation for the banquet has been made. The interior of Armory Hall is covered with flags and hundreds of electric bulbs will illumine the banquet room. Pink cardinal roses and ferns will be in abundance. Rammel Bros. will be the caterers, and Schroeder's Band will furnish the music. Mr. J. T. Johnson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will preside.

About 25 leading magazine publishers appeared before the House committee on postoffices and post roads yesterday and protested against the proposed increase in the rates for second-class mail matter.

Mrs. Virginia Day, 72 years old, died at her home, in Warrenton, Tuesday night after a lingering illness. She is survived by two daughters. She was the widow of Dr. Douglas Day.

The resignation of John T. Harman, jr., of Virginia, midshipman of the fourth class, at the naval academy, was accepted yesterday by the Navy Department. Harman resigned voluntarily.

Close in the wake of Representative Garner's bill calling for the repeal of the duty on cattle came a more drastic measure yesterday, introduced by Representative Sabath, of Illinois. This latter bill would exempt from duty a large number of articles of food.

Mrs. Frances Powell, widow of Wellington Gordon, formerly of Fredericksburg, and daughter of Hon. Oathbert Powell, of Leesgollen, Loudoun county, died at San Rafael, Cal., on the 6th inst.

Mr. Fred Holt died in Richmond yesterday. He married several years ago Miss Charlotte Nelson, of Warrenton, a daughter of the late Rev. G. W. Nelson, who for years was pastor of St. James' Episcopal Church, Warrenton.

David Bailey, for half a century an employee of the Southern Railway, died yesterday at his home in Charlottesville, aged 64. The remains were taken to his former home at Oulpaper where the funeral took place from the Orthodox Church this evening.

Plans for extensive improvements at the University of Virginia are on foot, and President Alderman is trying to get the legislature to appropriate $150,000 for the purpose. Science Hall is to be built and Dawson's row to have colonial facades.

Herbert, Glenlynn, rail joint; Waverly M. Hurd, Warrenton, lock; Arthur Scrivener Richmond, sand retaining device for foundry flasks.

PRESENTATION. In the presence of the members of the House and Senate in Richmond yesterday an interesting event took place, as was stated in the Gazette of that day. A resolution was adopted requesting that Governor and Mrs. Swanson be invited to attend the session then being held. This was agreed to and a committee escorted the two ladies and the two officers to the hall of the House. The members arose as the party entered. Speaker Byrd on behalf of the members presented to Mr. and Mrs. Ellyson a silver water set, and Senator Halsey, acting for the members of the Senate, made a speech in which he presented to Governor and Mrs. Swanson a very handsome silver water pitcher and goblet. The speech-making was timely, pointed and exquisite and short. The members gave to Governor Swanson the same reception that is usually accorded to him when he appears in public. The gifts were provided by the members of the general assembly going down into their pockets and contributing to buy the gifts.

THE FOOTBALL GAME. The State Senate committee on general laws made an adverse report yesterday on the Parks football bill, reporting it with an amendment which is tantamount to an adverse report providing that the game of football shall be played in this state "under the existing rules." That destroys the bill, as the change of a word or two in the rules would permit the continuance of the game. This does not suit Captain Parks, who is receiving letters in large numbers urging him to stand by his bill and to press for favorable action at the hands of the Senate. Captain Parks is a fighter and will not accept the amendment, which nullifies the very thing he was seeking to accomplish.

Robert P. Brown has sold through his agent, David N. Rust, jr., a large tract of land near the Highway bridge in Alexandria county to Messrs. L. C. Bailey and C. C. Carlin.

The motto of a horse is shown by his arched head and high step. The motto of a man is in the way he walks and the way he talks. He shows it in the way he throws his shoulders back and his head forward. You can always tell a jagged by his look. When a "man" looks you in the eye without a quiver, and grips your hand firm and hard you know he's the man who always accomplishes what he starts out to do. In the first place he's particular. He demands those irresistibly delicious 'nuth Sausages and Food Products from the Auth Market and enjoys the health of the man who is worth while. THE PUNCH BOWL FELL.

When Mrs. William Hedges Mason entered for the first time the reception room of Virginia's executive mansion in Richmond where she and her husband, governor-elect and vice-president of the Virginia Anti-Slavery League, will make their home for the next four years, beginning February 1, a huge punch bowl made of cut glass, which has ornamented the gubernatorial buffet since the days when Thomas Jefferson was at the helm of Virginia's ship of state and which was filled with champagne punch, fell from the dumb waiter to the floor and broke into hundreds of pieces.

The more facetious of those present said that they deplored the loss of the handsome piece of glass not so much as they did the liquid refreshment. Some declared it to be a decree of fate that not even glassware designed to carry the staff that inebriates should remain in the home of the new governor.

At present no one is able to explain the catastrophe, for it is so regarded by many.
